

Margherita Hut

The highest refuge in Europe, a popular destination for every mountain enthusiast. It is a magnificent excursion in a typical high mountain environment with large glaciers, seracs and wide panoramas. The effort made during the climb is amply repaid by one of the most extensive panoramas in the Alps: from the Maritime Alps to the Dolomites with the entire Po Valley, while to the north the view is lost among more than 40 mountains that exceed the fateful altitude of 4000 meters.
