

Winter is coming, the cold is coming. The water begins to freeze on the rock forming large ice flows with the most fascinating shapes. Little frequented during the summer, the side valleys of Valsesia become the kingdom of silence in winter. This is why climbing on the ice falls of Valsesia is an experience to try at least once in your life.

PROGRAM

Meeting in the morning, material check and we set off for the chosen destination. The difficulty of the waterfall will be chosen based on the technical skills of the participants.
