

Magnificent route that crosses the heart of Monte Rosa and allows you to admire all its peaks.

The long descent along the Grenz glacier below the north face of the Lyskamm has few comparisons in the Alps, in terms of length and views.

This tour, not presenting any major technical difficulties, is accessible to many skiers, but requires good physical training given the altitude where it takes place.

INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPATION COST

€ 430,00 PER PERSON

Min and Max 4 people

Dates on request for groups

PLAN

1st DAY: meeting in Alagna, skiing with the guide to check materials and level. Followed by the cable car and you reach Punta Indren from where, on skis, you set off towards Capanna Gnifetti, dinner and overnight stay.

2nd DAY: climb up to Colle del Lys (with the possibility of reaching the top of Ludwigshöhe or Capanna Margherita). Descent along the Grenz glacier. Dinner and overnight stay at the Cervino Guide refuge.

3rd DAY: with the ski lifts you reach the Klein Matterhorn, and from here the summit of the Western Breithorn, descent to Champoluc along the Vallone delle Cime Bianche or along the Vallone di Verra. Return to Alagna along off-piste itineraries with the help of the Monterosaski ski lifts
