

PROGRAM

A day in the company of a Mountain Guide, discovering the most picturesque corners of the Monterosa Ski area, which, between slopes and off-piste, traverses the three valleys of Alagna, Gressoney, and Champoluc.

Experience a day on skis with us, having fun and learning the secrets of off-piste skiing in complete safety.

This activity is suitable for families looking for a different kind of day on the snow.

A good command of on-piste technique is required; the Guide will choose the itineraries based on the group's ability and current conditions.

Entrusting yourself to the professionalism of an Mountain Guide will allow you to safely discover the most remote and hidden corners of our "freeride paradise" through the most suitable routes.

The itineraries will be chosen by the Guide based on the group's ability and current
